Minister Spotlight—Adam Davis

Too often, we treat baptism like a box to check, a ceremony to complete, or a moment to remember fondly—but then forget.

But baptism is meant to shape us for a lifetime.

It's not just something that happened once—it's something that defines who we are now. We were buried with Christ. Raised to walk a new life. Claimed by the Father. Filled with the Spirit. Marked by grace.

To take baptism lightly is to forget who we are.

Every time we return to the waters in our memory, we remember: we belong to Jesus. We're part of His story. We've been washed, called, and sent.

So don't take baptism lightly. Live it deeply. Let its waters shape your life every day.
