The Canticle of the Sun
Attributed to St. Francis of Assisi

Most High, all-powerful, good Lord,
Yours are the praises, the glory, honor, and all blessings.
To You alone, Most High, do they belong,
and no one is worthy to mention Your name.

Praised be You, my Lord, with all your creatures;
especially Brother Sun, who is the day, and through whom You give us light.
And he is beautiful and radiant with great splendor, and bears a likeness to You, Most High One.

Praised be You, my Lord, through Sister Moon and the stars;
in heaven You formed them clear and precious and beautiful.

Praised be You, my Lord, through Brother Wind, and through the air, cloudy and serene, and every kind of weather through which You give sustenance to Your creatures.

Praised be You, my Lord, through Sister Water, which is very useful and humble and precious and chaste.

Praised be You, my Lord, through Brother Fire, through whom You light the night;
and he is beautiful and playful and robust and strong.

Praised be You, my Lord, through Sister Mother Earth, who sustains us and governs us and who produces varied fruits with colored flowers and herbs.

Praised be You, my Lord, through those who give pardon for Your love, and bear infirmity and tribulation.
Blessed are those who endure in peace for by You, Most High, they shall be crowned.

Praised be You, my Lord, through our Sister Bodily Death, from whom no living man can escape.
Blessed are those whom death will find in Your most holy will,
for the second death shall do them no harm.

Praise and bless my Lord, and give God thanks, and serve God with great humility.
Amen

The Proclamation of the Word

Reader A reading from Paul’s Letter to the Galatians (6:14-18)

May I never boast of anything except the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. For neither circumcision nor uncircumcision is anything; but a new creation is everything! As for those who will follow this rule—peace be upon them, and mercy, and upon the Israel of God.

From now on, let no one make trouble for me; for I carry the marks of Jesus branded on my body. May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, brothers and sisters. Amen.

Psalm 148:7-14, 9 (Congregation joins bold text) Chant No. 9

Praise the Lord / from the earth,* you sea monsters / and all deeps; fire and hail, / snow and fog,* tempestuous wind, do-/ing his will;
mountains / and all hills,* fruit trees / and all cedars;
wild beasts / and all cattle,* creeping things and / wing-ed birds;
kings of the earth / and all peoples,* princes and all rulers / of the world;
young / men and maidens,* old and / young together.
Let them praise the name / of the Lord,*
for God’s name only is exalted, God’s splendor is over / earth and heaven.
God has raised up strength for his people and praise for all his / loyal servants,* the children of Israel, a people who are near him. Hal-/lelujah!

The Gospel

All stand, as able, for the proclamation of the Gospel.
Deacon The Lord be with you
People And also with you.
Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew [11:25-30]
People Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

At that time Jesus said, “I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and the intelligent and have revealed them to infants; yes, Father, for such was your gracious will. All things have been handed over to me by my Father; and no one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal him.

‘Come to me, all you that are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me; for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.’

At the conclusion of the Gospel, the Deacon says,

The Gospel of Christ.

People Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
