---

- V.17            1. When we are doing something with and for the Lord, we should include Him in our decision making.
- Vv. 18-19       2. When we ask the Lord for instructions, we must wait on His response.
- V. 21            3. The Lord is aware of what our intentions are before we do anything.
- V. 22            4. We should become sad when we find out the Lord is not pleased with something concerning us.
- V. 23            5. The Lord knows what we plan to do before we do it.
- V. 24            6. It is not wise to betray the Lord.
- V. 25            7. Trying to act innocent before the Lord will not fool Him.
- Vv. 26-28       8. Our actions no matter what they are, will not stop the Lord from doing what He intends to do.
- Vv. 29-30       9. Nothing we do will stop the Lord from going forth with the program of His Father.
