- |         |   |
|---------|---|
| V.1     | 1. Freedom will result when we stand firm in Christ.  |
| V. 2    | 2. To depend on circumcision makes Christ of no value.  |
| Vv. 3-4 | 3. Grace and law cannot work together at the same time.   |
| V.v5-6  | 4. The thing that counts most is faith expressing itself through love.  |
| Vv.7-8  | 5. Legalism is disobedience to the truth, and it is not a divine teaching.  |
| V.9     | 6. Legalism leads to more and more evil.  |
| V. 10   | 7. Legalism brings judgement on its teachers.   |
| V. 11   | 8. Legalism does away with the offenses of the cross.   |
| V.12    | 9. Paul says sarcastically that if the Judaizers are so impressed with circumcision, then they should go further. |
| V. 13   | 10. Christian liberty does not permit sin; it rather encourages loving service.                                   |
| V. 14   | 11. The entire law is fulfilled in keeping one command “love your neighbor as yourself.”                          |
| V. 15   | 12. If believers are not filled with love, their actions may tear others down.                                    |
