Wisdom for 2026: What Shapes the Heart Shapes the Life

Most of us spend a great deal of energy managing what happens around us. We plan schedules, manage responsibilities, and try to stay one step ahead of life's demands. Yet Scripture consistently invites us to look inward—to the place where our thoughts, emotions, desires, and decisions are formed.

The Book of Proverbs makes a striking claim: the heart is the source from which life flows. In biblical language, the heart is not simply emotion; it is the center of who we are. What captures our attention, stirs our affections, and occupies our inner world eventually shapes how we live.

That insight feels especially relevant in a distracted and overwhelmed culture. We are constantly absorbing information, images, opinions, and emotional signals—often without slowing down to ask how they are shaping us. Over time, what we repeatedly allow into our inner life becomes familiar, then normal, and eventually influential.

Proverbs does not suggest that we withdraw from the world or ignore reality. Instead, it invites us to practice discernment—to pay attention to what has access to our hearts. Wisdom, according to Scripture, involves thoughtful guarding, not fearful isolation. It means learning to recognize which inputs nourish the soul and which quietly drain it.

The promise attached to this wisdom is hopeful. When the heart is well cared for, life begins to flow differently. Decisions become clearer. Relationships become healthier. Faith becomes steadier. Guarding the heart is not about restriction; it is about cultivating a life-giving source.

As our Wisdom for 2026 sermon series continues, this week's message turns inward, helping us reflect on what is shaping us beneath the surface. In a noisy world that constantly competes for our attention, Proverbs invites us to slow down, become more aware, and tend carefully to the place where life begins.

Join us this Sunday as we explore why guarding the heart matters—and how wisdom invites us to live from a healthier, more life-giving source.

See you Sunday!

Grace and peace,
Laugh often and Fear not!
David!

“The Well” (Caregiver Support Group)

Feeling drained?

Caregiving can be rewarding, but it is also challenging. Taking time for yourself can make you a better caregiver.

13-week series
Jan. 22 – Apr. 16
10:00am – 11:00am

Take Care of Yourself as a Caregiver

“The Well” (Caregiver Support Group)

Are you currently caring for a loved one, whether a parent, spouse, child or friend? Caregiving, while done in love, often drains one's energy. Caregivers often have a sense of feeling useful and needed, however the ongoing demands of caring for someone can lead to a Caregiver neglecting caring for themselves.

Here are a few signs.

- Are you feeling exhausted, overwhelmed or anxious
- Are you feeling lonely or disconnected from others
- Easily angered or impatient
- Trouble sleeping

MVPC is offering a Caregiver Support Group to give you the opportunity to meet with other Caregivers and share how things are going. This is a safe place to share and ask questions. Let us help you refuel and refill your “Well”!

First meeting on January 22 at 10:00am – 11:00am.

Doing Good - The Book of Titus

If Christians are "saved by grace," totally apart from good works, what difference does it make if we Do Good or not? In this series, from the book of Titus, Chip Ingram reveals that there are four key reasons why Doing Good matters so much. He also explains how we can become people who habitually Do Good – and the first step begins with who we are, not what we do. According to Scripture, Doing Good is not just a suggestion, it is very powerful, and can be costly. Chip encourages us, however, that the price of not Doing Good, can be even more costly. This series clarifies what Doing Good will do in you and then through you, for the benefit of others and the glory of God.

Jesus Changes Everything (YOUTH)

* Note: The real-life stories in this series contain mature themes.*

Teenagers often feel trapped. They're stuck in the same habits, depression sets in, and they wonder about their purpose. Life might seem pointless or hopeless at best. The lie that says nothing will ever change pulls teenagers deeper into the rut.

But Jesus offers a way out. He reaches down to give life—a new path to follow. He has the power to free us from habits, redeem our relationships, and give us a new identity. It all begins by deciding to follow Him, because a life surrendered to Jesus is a life transformed.

In this 4-part series, Nick Hall, Founder and Chief Communicator for PULSE, a ministry focused on reaching the next generation for Christ, talks to students about how a relationship with Jesus changes everything—our identity, relationships, habits, and mission. Students will be challenged to allow Jesus to transform every aspect of their lives.
