Lord,
We lift in prayer all these we have named. We also ask for your mercy for all those who are suffering. For those of us in war torn areas, Lord, bring us hope and reasons for joy. We lift up those who find themselves without housing, and those who are trying to help. Guide us toward policies that help all of us to thrive. Open our hearts to find understanding and cooperation instead of discord and polarization. Help us all as we make our way into the future as our country and our world deal with these and many other changes. Guide our leaders to careful LISTENING, accuracy in discernment of your will for our country, WISDOM in making their decisions, and to promote LOVE of one another in these days. Help us all to know the joy of doing good work together. For all of us suffering from grief, anxiety, depression, or suffering from abuse, and living in fear, sow among us faith in your purpose, to bring us to a future defined by HOPE. Give us a season of PEACE and the joys that come with it, our rock and our redeemer.

Reflection Questions

Isaiah 58:1-9a; 1 Corinthians 2:1-12; Matthew 5:13-20

- Isaiah 58:9: How can you transition from mere religious ritual to the active, compassionate response God requires?
- 1 Corinthians 2:12: How does the Holy Spirit help you distinguish between the values of the “world” and the “free gifts” given by God?
- Matthew 5:13: If you are the “salt of the earth,” in what specific areas of your community are you currently preserving goodness or adding flavor?
- Matthew 5:14-16: Is your “light” hidden by fear or burnout, and how can your local church community help you shine brighter?
- Matthew 5:19: Which “least commandment” do you find most difficult to uphold in your daily interactions?
- The Synthesis: How do these three passages together call you to manifest a “faith working through love” in your neighborhood this week?
