

Lorel Hoffmann

Lorel became a UVC member in 2024, after attending for 15 years.

- Volunteers by sharing chalk art at the welcome table and after-service fellowship treats
- Attends classes, book studies and concerts
- Retired art educator. Currently dividing time between creating art and working as a customer experience associate.

UVC has been my spiritual community for many years. Unity principles have given me a strong foundation to navigate life's ups and downs. I am blessed and honored to serve the church I call my spiritual home.
