

Sharon Simmonds

I was born and raised on a small dairy family in Wisconsin. (I love butter and cheese.) I graduated from the University of Northern Iowa with a BA degree in Family & Consumer Sciences, and from Drake University with a Masters Degree in Curriculum Design. I taught high school and junior high in the Quad Cities for 35 years and am happily retired.

My husband, Glenn, and I have been members of FPC for nearly 40 years. We both serve, or have served, as Elders and Deacons, and in various committees and projects.

I like the friendliness and willingness of our church members to be God's witness to all peoples.

Glenn and I enjoy the Adler Theater productions and our local dinner theater, Circa 21. I am active in several community volunteer organizations. I am "possessed" with quilting, traveling ...and gardening. We have traveled to 6 continents, and I've lost track of the number of countries we have visited and the number of quilts I've made.

I am a Green Bay Packers, Wisconsin Badger, and Iowa Hawkeye fan.
