Chiming of the Hour and the Light of Christ

*Greeting (Read by Liturgist)

Jesus, this day of all days we remember how you suffered because of your love for us. We tell the story of how you became a servant and suffered for all. We remember how you rode into Jerusalem on a donkey and how you ate the last meal with the disciples and were arrested. You were beaten and humiliated before all the world. This you did because you love us. Thank you, Lord Jesus. We are humbled to tears when we remember what you have done for us. You are the King of Glory and the Lord of our lives. All glory, honor, and praise is yours now and forever. Amen.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever, AMEN.
