Pastor Madelyn D. Manning Senior Pastor

Madelyn D. Manning serves as the Co-Pastor of Pasadena Church...the church with no limits in Pasadena, California and has been in full-time ministry for 24 years alongside her husband, Pastor Kerwin L. Manning. A graduate of Anderson University with a Bachelor's Degree in Political Science and Economics, Madelyn furthered her education by graduating from American University, Washington College of Law. Initially, she believed that she would influence the legal system in her community. And for a time, she was able to make her mark in these areas.

She is becoming known as a woman full of God's presence and spiritual discernment whose heart's desire is to inspire others to become all that God has designed them to be. Madelyn's anointed preaching and worship leading has led her to minister on various platforms, in churches, and international conferences around the globe such as South Africa, Japan, Nicaragua, Cuba and the Philippines. She is a powerful woman of God who continues to impact persons of all ages, backgrounds and cultures.

Pastors Madelyn and Kerwin have enjoyed 33 years of marital bliss. They have two beautiful daughters, Madison Denise, a graduate of Howard University, and Morgan Danielle (2003-2017), who is waiting for them in heaven.

In honor of Morgan's life, Kerwin and Madelyn started A Piece of My Heart Foundation to help find a cure for the rare heart condition Catecholaminergic Polymorphic Ventricular Tachycardia ("CPVT") or sudden death syndrome. Together, they are determined to save lives "One heart at a time."

"I'm passionate about releasing God's Presence and Power through every season and circumstance of my life...whether in joy or sorrow...on the mountain top...or in a valley low...There will be Glory...God will get the Glory!"

~ Madelyn
