FIRST Baptist CHURCH

Greetings church family!

I pray as always that you and your family are doing well in the Lord! Once again, seniors, congratulations on your accomplishments, and may God bless you as you go!

It is no secret that I love the game of baseball. I believe baseball, more than any other sport, gives us a picture of life. It requires you to succeed directly after failure multiple times within a short time span; so does life! This past week, I was blessed to be able to travel to Hoover and watch the SEC baseball tournament. Thank you, church, for allowing your staff to have some time off to enjoy the life we have been blessed with.

With that being said, I made some observations that connect to the church. As June comes in, it brings Father's Day to the table. I purposely like to build men up during this month because I feel like men are constantly mocked by our culture. Sitcom TV shows and comedy acts attempt to make men look weak and foolish. They desire to destroy the very foundation that God designed, which was and is that men should lead the household. However, men, we make it easy for the world to attack. We must desire to be better and more godly examples.

First, grown men should worship. I witnessed hundreds of grown men standing with their arms in the air, cheering for their favorite college team. They high-fived successes and fist-bumped great hits and great defensive plays. They yelled "War Eagle", "Wooo Pig Soovie", "Roll Tide", and barked like "Dogs" as if it could be their last breath. So please don't tell me that men can't worship! If we can worship in a stadium, we should be overly eager to worship in the sanctuary! We should have more enthusiasm, or at a minimum, equal enthusiasm in the sanctuary than in the stadium. The other observation I had is that men are absent. Men aren't just skipping church; they are skipping family activities and interactions. I have been blessed to go to this tournament for the past 5-6 years, and what I've noticed is the number of moms with kids and no man or dad in sight. I get it. We have to work to provide for our families financially, we don't like baseball, we don't have vacation days...honestly, I'm tired of excuses. Our kids have excuses because we teach them how to have excuses. My kids get far more from me being present than from me giving them cash or nice things! Do I desire to give them good gifts? You better believe it. Am I a perfect dad? Not even close, but I hope my kids feel that I'm present, even though at times I'm not, because I allow my job(s) to get in the way. So, I'm calling myself out on this. I'll give and give of my time to everyone else, but I fail to give to my own kids! (For the record, there were several dads there, but I was just amazed by how many were not.) Men, let's make a commitment to discipleship for Father's Day, and let's hold each other accountable to God and His Church and the roles He's given us as dads. By the way, many men are striving and giving it all we have. Just keep fighting the good fight! Keep showing up for your family and keep loving them in Christ! God sees it, and he will reward it if we do not grow faint! Happy Father's Day to all dads, and may God bless each one of you and your families! Please know that if you need me, I'm here.

Thank you to everyone who helped with, served, made a donation, and/or bought a ticket to the Living Water Gala! We were able to give each individual or ministry partner over $800! To God be the Glory!!

Student Ministry

Dear Church Family,

Summer has finally arrived! Our recent graduates join us for their last summer camps as students, and our sixth-grade grads enjoy their last kids' camps before moving to the high school! Please pray especially for these two groups as they transition into new seasons of life.

Many of our students will be serving at VBS here at FBC Guin, as well as at another VBS in Laurel, MS, with our ministry partner, Glory House. I am proud of our group for giving their time to serve others by sharing the Gospel! I am proud of our church for modeling this service for our students and kids! Please join me in praying for these two great ministry opportunities!

We have many fun things planned for the summer, including trips to the pickleball courts, joint services/events with other churches, worship nights, etc. When we are in the Loft, we will focus much of our time on building upon the foundation of our relationships with Christ and shaping our friendships to be built on the same foundation. Please pray that our students would use their free time this summer to seek discipleship. Please prayerfully consider discipling some of our students.

Thank you, church, for consistently loving and pouring into our students!

Important Dates:

Super Summer - July 13-17. Cost is $335, due by June 28.

Mission Trip to Laurel, MS - June 7-12. Cost is $125 due by June 1.

With love,
Nate Kemble

Hello Church Family!

The kids will be starting Unit 22 of The Gospel Project-Jesus The Healer. Isaiah prophesied that the Messiah would come to bring good news and heal the broken. During Jesus' earthly ministry, He performed amazing miracles, including healing those who were demon possessed, socially excluded, or physically unwell. Each miracle was done out of compassion for people and to glorify God. Our key passage is from Daniel 4:3: "How great are his signs, how mighty are his wonders! His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom and his dominion endures from generation to generation."

Session 1-Jesus Second Miracle-John 4

Session 2-Jesus Rejected in Nazareth-Luke 4

Session 3-Healings in Capernaum-Mark 1; Luke 4

Session 4-Healing in Galilee-Mark 1; Luke 4-5

Important Dates to Remember:

May 31st - June 4th VBS

June 29th - July 3rd Centrikid Camp for 3rd grade-6th grade

God Bless Each of You,
Crystal

Music Ministry

Hello FBC Family,

Talent, vocal agility, masterful musicianship, charismatic personality, even good looks... are qualities people look for in worship leaders today. Granted, many of these things hold merit; however a worship leader without character and integrity will struggle to maintain longevity and even authenticity in leading worship. Hebrews 12:28-29 describes what God looks for from those who worship Him. 28 Therefore let us be grateful for receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, and thus let us offer to God acceptable worship, with reverence and awe, 29 for our God is a consuming fire.

Nowhere in the Word does it state that to be a worship leader you MUST have talent, vocal agility... it only says to worship Him with reverence and awe. Yes there must be order, but reverence and awe is what is required for "acceptable worship". We are all worship leaders, not just those of us who are paid; everyone of God's children are leaders.

The music department at FBC Guin is looking for individuals to serve who love God!!! Whether you have a heart to sing to the Lord, have an ear to run a sound board live or online, or even run lighting and cameras, there is a place for you here. We look forward to serving with you.

Love God. Love People. Serve the World.

Joe and Cathy Vigneaux
