DI release all that no longer serves me, and allow my Divine Will to guide me gently into the fullness of my good.

The Christ in me is my strength, my wisdom, and my way. I willingly align my will with Divine Will, and I flow with ease into the perfect expression of who I truly am.

I accept myself fully and completely. The divine presence within me is my true nature. With a willing heart I embrace the Truth of my being. I am free, I am whole, I am loved.

I am free in Spirit. I flow with Divine Wisdom and Strength.
