FPC Staff Reports, January 2026

Abby Schodelmeyer, Marty Bowles-Edwards: Co-Directors of Christian Education

Please see the CEFY report for details of dates and programming.

1. The month of December was filled with Advent and Christmas planning.
2. We planned a Movie Night and Christmas Party for the Elementary students. Grown-ups had the opportunity to drop off their child(ren) for a few hours to shop, eat together, or take a nap.
3. Marty and Abby, with the support of Pastor Kris, planned the Christmas Eve Family Service. We planned an interactive format for the children and grown-ups in attendance. The service was based on the book Advent in Plain Sight by Jill J. Duffield
4. Manna and More in December was smaller due to weather. Pastor Kris led adult education in words for Advent. Manna and More was an extension of the words. All were invited to write what brings them joy. We invited those that missed Manna and More to share what brings them joy in later weeks. The words are posted in the Fellowship Hall on the bulletin boards.
5. Sunday School children participated in a yoga lesson by Elizabeth Breinish. They also had the opportunity to act out the Christmas story in costumes. The children were able to share their version of the story after learning the original story.
6. Youth Group continues meeting weekly. In December the highlight was our Christmas Party and White Elephant gift exchange. Confirmation continues each week with the support of Craig Foster and elders.
7. Abby supported several FPC youth and adults in the performance of Cinderella on December 12. Marty supported them December 13. Abby attended the annual FPC Christmas Concert while Marty participated in the evening. Nursery care for those kindergarten and younger was available for the evening
8. Abby and Marty spent time planning for January programming to allow for a smooth start after the holiday break.
9. We enjoyed a slower week between Christmas and New Year. We appreciated the time spent with our families.

The Sanctuary Choir, Chamber Chorale, Vesper Bells, Quad City Youth Choir, orchestra, and our organist Alex Gilson all performed exceedingly well to a very large and engaged audience. Donations were collected for the FPC Caring Closet.
- Christmas Eve included music from the Kirkwood Choir at 4pm and the Sanctuary Choir at 9pm.
- Music from the Chamber Chorale's Advent Service of Lessons and Carols on December 7 and was rebroadcast on WVIK (Quad Cities NPR) on Christmas Eve.

Bawden Youth Engagement Scholarship
First Presbyterian Church Davenport, Iowa

OPERATING GUIDELINES

1) PURPOSE OF THE FUND AND DISTRIBUTIONS.

a) Purpose. To award post-secondary school scholarships to youth who have been actively engaged in specific programs run or sponsored by First Presbyterian Church in accordance with known and clearly understood metrics.

b) Distributions. Qualified expenditures incurred and submitted within two years of high school graduation (or its equivalency) will be paid or reimbursed to the extent of the participants' accrued and unexpended benefit amount. After the expiration of this two-year period, participant's unexpended benefits will be forfeited.

2) MANAGEMENT OF FUND.

a) Foundation Responsibilities:

i) Fund Assets. The Board of Trustees of the Foundation shall manage the assets gifted to this fund similarly to the other funds which they manage for the Church.

ii) Record Keeping:

(1) A summary of accumulated contributions to the Fund shall be preserved.

(2) The accrued and unexpended benefit amount relating to each participant shall be maintained.

b) Session Responsibilities:

i) General Financial Management. Authorize the recording and processing of financial information relating to the fund and the preparation of financial statements (annually on a June 30th year-end); review and endorse participant distributions.

ii) Member Promotion. Communicate the essential character and requirements of the Scholarship fund to members.

iii) Participate in the Award Process. Annually appoint two Session members to participate in the award procedure (ideally from CEFY and Finance).

c) Staff Responsibilities:

i) Develop and Maintain Documents. Draft and maintain forms to document participants' annual enrollment and subsequent scholarship award.

ii) Member Promotion. Communicate the essential character and requirements of the Scholarship fund to members.

iii) Participate in the Award Process. Provide staff participation in the award procedure (presumably the Director of Music Ministries and/or the individual responsible for ministry to youth).

3) AWARD PROCEDURE.

a) Annual Enrollment. Prior to the start of an academic year, participants must enroll in order to be granted an annual scholarship benefit.

The awarded benefit is granted annually and is cumulative during the period corresponding to the participants' activities during their academic years from birth to twelfth grade .

b) Award Committee. After the close of an academic year, Session members, staff representatives and a scouting leader will meet to formally assign award amounts.

c) Award Metric. Each academic year, applicants will be evaluated for “adequate” engagement in four youth program categories:

- education,
- fellowship, outreach and service
- music ministry, and
- scouting.

If determined to be “adequate,” a set monetary amount will accrue to the individual’s annual and cumulative awarded benefit amount.

“Adequate” Participation shall be determined through a simple “more often than not” award standard (50% or greater involvement in and attendance at each of the total categorical opportunities available).

d) Initial Award Amount. Participants shall be credited annually with a $50/year scholarship amount for each of the four program areas in which they “adequately” participate.

In addition, Troop 7 Eagle Scout candidates will be eligible for a $200 service project cost grant. This grant should be applied for in writing and should also detail their proposed expenditures.

e) Award Modification. The details of this award procedure may be adjusted by the affirmative vote of the Session in order to enhance their efficiency and practicality. However, the underlying intent and purpose of this fund should not be disregarded.

4) ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS.

a) Termination. This program shall terminate when the value of assets held by the fund is equal to or exceeded by the accrued and unexpended benefit amount.

Additional contributions to this fund may be solicited and accepted from any source subsequent to the fund’s formation.

If, at any point, the Session determines the program to be ineffective, due to ongoing lack of youth participation and/or award distributions, the Session can dissolve the program and repurpose the remaining funds. In such a case, the donors would prefer that remaining funds be used in some way to "develop community," but do not wish to limit future expenditures if church leaders wish to use them for other priorities.

b) Overaccumulation. If at any June 30th the net value of fund assets exceeds 200% of accumulated contributions to the fund, the excess shall be distributed as grants to the underlying organizations in proportion to the four youth program categories. The express purpose of these grants would be to enhance youth participation.

5) DEFINITIONS.

a) Youth. For purposes of this document, the term "youth" shall include individuals from birth to high school graduation.

b) Qualified expenditures. Post-secondary school academic and trade-school tuition and other required costs. In addition, unreimbursed costs and expenses related to military enlistment and training shall be eligible for reimbursement.

c) Accrued and unexpended benefit amount. The accumulated participant awards less prior reimbursed qualified expenditures.

d) Net value of fund assets. The fair market value of fund assets less the accrued and unexpended benefit amount relating to all participants.

MDP - Narratives

How would you describe the congregation's/organization's specific vision for ministry? How will this vision impact the community? Is the congregation part of a ministry vision or program?

First Presbyterian Church of Davenport (FPC) is a congregation that, in all it does, desires to love God and show God's love to our neighbors. We desire to provide care for those within our congregation and those outside our congregation.

FPC is a Matthew 25 Congregation and a member of the Covenant Network of Presbyterians. FPC intends to live into these commitments from the pulpit, in our outreach activities, how we spend our money, and in our personal interactions. We are also a member church in the ecumenical organization, P.U.N.C.H. (People Uniting Neighbors and Churches, 7 churches organized to make our Davenport neighborhood a better place to live and work).

Specifically, our recent congregation wide discernment process defined the following areas of ministry priority.

- Music ministry for all ages
- Excellence in worship
- Ministry to children, youth, and families
- Community Center (Intergenerational: Meals, Resources, Education and Spiritual Growth Opportunities, Arts, and Wellness)
- Expansion of the Caring Closet (FPC free clothing center)
- A stronger digital presence
- Good financial management/sustainability

Additionally, required maintenance, renovation and upgrades to our circa 1898 sanctuary and circa 1923 Christian Education building are being evaluated.

What is the nature and context of the community in which your congregation lives out its mission/vision? How will you address the emerging needs that are impacting your community?

Our congregation is located on the "hilltop" of Davenport, IA, about 1 mile north of the downtown. Davenport is the largest of 4 main cities that comprise the Quad Cities.

Although most of our members no longer live in the church's neighborhood, we have committed to remaining in our present location. Our desire is to be good neighbors and to grow where we are planted.

Our church is in an older neighborhood of Davenport. It is diverse in household incomes, ethnicities, and housing. About 50% of the students in neighborhood schools qualify for free lunches.

We see our mission activities focused not only on our immediate neighborhood, nor just the Quad Cities but our global community.

With Matthew 25 as our guide, our mission efforts are led primarily by our Deacons. Here are some of the ways our church impacts our neighbors, near and far.

- House and operate the Caring Closet, a place where all are welcome to find free clothing and goods
- Partner with Sudlow Middle School to provide teachers and students with needed items
- Support Humility Homes, Inc (local housing service) with supplies and funding
- Participate in Habitat for Humanity construction projects

What is the nature and context of the community in which your congregation lives out its mission/vision? How will you address the emerging needs that are impacting your community?

- Prepare and serve monthly for a local free meal site
- Sew and knit clothing for local, national and international distribution
- Participate with Kids Against Hunger (packaging food for children and families in need)
- Partner with Tapestry Farms to provide affordable housing to refugee families next door to the church (in housing owned by the FPC's Foundation)

How will this call help complement the responsibilities of other staff/volunteer positions, and the life of the congregation/organization, so that you may accomplish your short and long-term goals for ministry?

After a longer than anticipated interim period, FPC called Rev. Dr. Kristopher Schondelmeyer as our pastor in January 2023. Like for many churches, our interim period, combined with the pandemic, led to a reduction in church membership, attendance, participation and financial support. Since 2023, our situation has stabilized and we see signs of regrowth in important areas. We still hold to many elements of our former larger church existence. This stretches the time and resources that Pastor Kris, a high energy pastor, can reasonably supply. The church feels we are in need of additional staff. Through a donor commitment, this Associate Pastor position is fully funded for five years, providing a strong foundation of stability. The congregation will prayerfully discern the future of the position in light of its ongoing growth, ministry needs, and financial health.

This position is designed to focus on areas such as adult spiritual growth, mission, and member care which were identified as high priority in recent congregation-wide discernment. All of these areas are currently functioning but not with the desired impact. It is our hope that with the focus of additional staff, these programs can flourish. Ideally, the successful candidate, working collaboratively with volunteers and staff, will bring fresh eyes to our current programs and create meaningful improvements. With the Pastor/Head of Staff, this person will be asked to equip leaders, encourage engagement, and call the membership to greater service.

Provide a description of the skills, gifts and training the person you hope will become a part of your ministry must have, to lead the congregation towards the vision and mission established.

What areas of ministry do you expect the person called to be responsible for? Share specific tasks, assignments, and programs.

First Presbyterian Church of Davenport is seeking a self-motivated individual with a wealth of ideas to help revitalize our adult ministries. The Associate Pastor must be willing to work alongside not only the Pastor/Head of Staff but with Session Committees and the Board of Deacons to support, guide, and create new opportunities for adult spiritual growth, adult fellowship, hands-on mission work, and member care.

Responsibilities of the Associate Pastor of Adult Ministries:

- Spearhead alongside the Pastor/Head of Staff the development and implementation of a robust adult ministry program
- Staff and guide the Adult Spiritual Growth Committee and the Fellowship Committee
