Medical Emergency Procedure:

Each child must have an "Emergency Contact" card on file before the first day of school. This card must have at least three different emergency numbers; i.e. the Mother, the Father, and one other name and number. Parents are responsible to notify the school in writing of any changes during the year.

In the event of a non-serious injury, the SMCC personnel will administer first-aid as per American Red Cross/Heart Assoc. training procedures and contact the parents if any further treatment is necessary. If no contacts are reached in a reasonable amount of time, EMS will be called if deemed necessary.

In the event of a serious injury, the SMCC will immediately contact EMS and a name from the "Emergency Contact Card" and follow the American First-Aid procedures until EMS arrives.
