A congregation of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A)

-Welcome to First Presbyterian Church of Davenport

Welcome to First Presbyterian Church of Davenport, a church where EVERYONE is welcome. On behalf of the entire First Pres family, we want you to know that we are so glad you're here. We are a proud congregation of the Presbyterian Church (USA), where We Choose WELCOME!

We welcome followers of Jesus who are solid in their faith, and we welcome questioning believers seeking deeper meaning in their life. We welcome those who come from different faith backgrounds, such as Methodists, Lutherans, and Catholics, and those with no faith background at all; for we are all one in Christ Jesus. No matter where you are on your journey of faith, you are welcome here!

We hope you experience the warmth and friendliness of our congregation. It is a place that long-term members have described as their spiritual home for generations. It is also a place where people newer to our community of faith have found a safe and sacred space for themselves and their families.

Nursery care is available during the worship service for children (birth through pre-school). The nursery is staffed by trained and background-checked caregivers from 8:15 AM to 11:30 AM. The nursery is on the third floor of the Christian Education (CE) building. Ask a worship host if you need assistance locating this space.

Kirkwood Choir is offered during the service, after the Children's Message. Kirkwood Choir provides music for worship throughout the September to April program year. Check today's bulletin for current schedule.

MusikGarten, a program for parents/caregivers and young children (birth through pre-school), is provided after the service in room #310 of the CE building. MusikGarten is our unique program that allows participation in a fun, energetic environment while instilling a love and understanding of music in young children. Check today's bulletin for schedule.

Sunday School classes for children, youth, and adults are offered after the service. Children and youth Sunday school is located on the third floor of the CE building. High School youth are encouraged to be helpers in the elementary classes. Adult Sunday school is in Von Maur Hall. Please ask a worship host if you need assistance locating these spaces.

AN LGBTQIA+ AFFIRMING CONGREGATION OF THE COVENANT NETWORK OF PRESBYTERIANS

Our Session (church council) has adopted a bold vision of creating safe and sacred space for all. We aren't perfect at it, but we are joyfully beginning to live into this new vision. We are an open and affirming congregation, and a proud member of the Covenant Network of Presbyterians (covnetpres.org). The Session and members of First Pres extend a sincere welcome to persons of all races, nationalities, genders, and sexual orientations. This includes an open invitation to membership, the sacraments of baptism and communion, marriage, funerals, memorial services, and service as an officer of the church.

MATTHEW 25

We are a Matthew 25 church in the PC(USA). Matthew 25 congregations identify themselves as working toward one or more of three goals: building congregational vitality, dismantling structural racism, and eradicating systemic poverty.

Land Acknowledgement: First Presbyterian Church gratefully acknowledges the Indigenous Peoples on whose ancestral homelands we gather, as well as the diverse and vibrant Indigenous communities who make Iowa and Illinois their home today. The communities we serve through our ministries occupy the traditional homelands of the people of the Kiikaapoi, Myaamia, Očhéthi Šakówiŋ, Peoria, Sauk, and Meskwaki nations. We honor these and numerous Indigenous tribes who first made the banks of the Mississippi River a center for arts and commerce.

✞ Worshipers who are comfortably able are invited to stand in body or spirit.

Preparing for the Word

Prelude — Reflection on "Holy Manna" — arr. Sandra Eithun
The Vesper Bells — (b. 1963)

Welcome and Announcements — The Rev. Kari Swanson

Introit — Never Forget to Be Thankful — Natalie Sleeth
The Kirkwood Choir — (1930-1992)

Never forget to be thankful for all of the gifts we receive, for God is the source of your blessings, and that you can truly believe.

'Twas God who made the earth and sky,
creatures all who multiply,
fish that swim and birds that fly
way up high! (Refrain)

'Tis God who finds us when we stray,
makes the rules we should obey,
gently leads us on our way,
day by day.
(Natalie Sleeth)

✞ Call to Worship

One: Please rise, in body or in spirit, for the Call to Worship.

One: Out of dust, God called us into being–
All: We believe God still creates.
One: All creation groans in pain from destruction and greed–
All: We believe God listens to creation's deepest needs.
One: When loneliness seems to win, God brings fellowship–
All: We believe God establishes community.
One: Come, let us worship our Creator together today.

✞ Passing of the Peace

One: May the peace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with you!
All: And also with you!

(In a way that is comfortable for you, please share the Peace of Christ with those around you.)

✞ Hymn One All Things Bright and Beautiful ROYAL OAK

Call to Confession Ted Brown, Liturgist

Though we are dust and to dust we will return, it is through the dirt that God calls forth beautiful new life and creation. In our death, God claims us and calls us back into relationship with the rest of creation. In one voice, let us confess our sins before God and each other.

Prayer of Confession

Creator God, through you we are interwoven with the rest of creation. We confess our apathy toward caring for all you have made– the earth and each other. We have not seen your image in our neighbor and your creativity in the works of all creatures. We have abused the responsibility to care for our planet, all creatures, and each other due to greed, selfishness, and violence. Lord, have mercy on us. Transform us into better helpers of creation. May our hands bring new life, flourishing, and love to the ground and our neighbors alike. May we believe in the hope of new life amid the dust, even when we cannot see it ourselves. Amen.

Assurance of Forgiveness

One: Hear the good news. The Great Artist continues to draw us into the act of renewal and transformation. We are forgiven and set forth as co-workers of God.
All: Out of dust emerges new life. We are forgiven. Thanks be to God!

Listening for the Word

Anthem Let Us Plant Our Gardens Now — Dominick DiOrio (b. 1984)
The Sanctuary Choir
Linda Ruebling, oration; Samantha Crow, solo; David Jacobsmeier, percussion
Premiere of the SATB Version (Commissioned by FPC)

"[Justice] does not allow that the sacrifices imposed on a few are outweighed by the larger sum of advantages enjoyed by many." -John Rawls

Neighbor, let us find nature.
Near us, in us. Nurture the wild freedom of the human creature.
No longer sacrifice some among our numbers
to a twisted idol, exiled from clear, cool water, wholesome earth, sun-warmed air,
and bees, and time enough to grow. No longer offer gilded alibis as we make whole communities canaries, whose silence has until now been their song. Neighbor, we are kind, kin, ken. We will all enter a commons, this only earth and air and water, in the end. Let us plant our gardens now, together, where we live.
("Habitat" by Megan Levad, b. 1978)

Children's Message

Prayer for Illumination

God our helper, by your Holy Spirit, open our minds that as your story is read and your Word proclaimed, we may be led into your truth, love, and new creation. Amen.

First Lesson Romans 8:18-25

18 I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory about to be revealed to us. 19 For the creation waits with eager longing for the revealing of the children of God, 20 for the creation was subjected to futility, not of its own will, but by the will of the one who subjected it, in hope 21 that the creation itself will be set free from its enslavement to decay and will obtain the freedom of the glory of the children of God. 22 We know that the whole creation has been groaning together as it suffers together the pains of labor, 23 and not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly while we wait for adoption, the redemption of our bodies. 24 For in hope we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope, for who hopes for what one already sees? 25 But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience.

One: This is the Word of the Lord.
All: Thanks be to God.

Second Lesson Genesis 2:4-9, 15-25

4 These are the generations of the heavens and the earth when they were created.

In the day that the Lord God made the earth and the heavens, 5 when no plant of the field was yet in the earth and no vegetation of the field had yet sprung up—for the Lord God had not caused it to rain upon the earth, and there was no one to till the ground, 6 but a stream would rise from the earth and water the whole face of the ground— 7 then the Lord God formed man from the dust of the ground and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and the man became a living being. 8 And the Lord God planted a garden in Eden, in the east, and there he put the man whom he had formed. 9 Out of the ground the Lord God made to grow every tree that is pleasant to the sight and good for food, the tree of life also in the midst of the garden, and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.

15 The Lord God took the man and put him in the garden of Eden to till it and keep it. 16 And the Lord God commanded the man, "You may freely eat of every tree of the garden, 17 but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you shall not eat, for in the day that you eat of it you shall die."
18 Then the Lord God said, "It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him a helper as his partner." 19 So out of the ground the Lord God formed every animal of the field and every bird of the air and brought them to the man to see what he would call them, and whatever the man called every living creature, that was its name. 20 The man gave names to all cattle and to the birds of the air and to every animal of the field, but for the man[a] there was not found a helper as his partner. 21 So the Lord God caused a deep sleep to fall upon the man, and he slept; then he took one of his ribs and closed up its place with flesh. 22 And the rib that the Lord God had taken from the man he made into a woman and brought her to the man. 23 Then the man said,

"This at last is bone of my bones
and flesh of my flesh;
this one shall be called Woman,
for out of Man this one was taken."

24 Therefore a man leaves his father and his mother and clings to his wife, and they become one flesh.
25 And the man and his wife were both naked and were not ashamed.

Prayers of the People

Lord's Prayer

Our Creator who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kin-dom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kin-dom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

HYMNS

✞ Hymn One All Things Bright and Beautiful ROYAL OAK

One of a series of hymns the author wrote for children on the Apostles' Creed, this text (originally in seven stanzas) expands "Maker of heaven and earth." The first stanza became the refrain when the text was later set to a popular tune from the age of King Charles II.

TEXT: Cecil Frances Alexander, 1848, alt. ROYAL OAK
MUSIC: English melody, 17th cent.; adapt. Martin Shaw, 1915; harm. The Hymnbook, 1955 7.6.7.6 with refrain Music Harm. © 1955, ren. 1983 John Ribble (admin. Westminster John Knox Press)

This text was written for the 1979 National Meeting of United Presbyterian Women, whose theme, "In the Image of God," is variously considered here as reflection, focus, distortion, and polishing for clarity. The words are well set to an anonymous 19th-century American tune.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

LIFE OF THE CHURCH

Manna & More - November 15 - Intergenerational Program: Neurodiversity

Just like each and every fingerprint God makes for us is unique, so are our brains. Spend time learning and growing with us to find out more about Neurodiversity and how we can support all God's children in our church and community.

Sarah Greim and Kathy Knox have over 50 years of combined experience in the pk-12 special education field and are currently practicing in this field. Both practitioners are leaders in their fields and have trained and presented on neurodiversity and connection with kids to a wide variety of audiences including parents, teachers and clergy members. They can't wait to create a shared understanding of neurodiversity and how we can support all God's children in their lives.

The menu will be pumpkin and regular pancakes, sausage, fruit cup and apple compote.

Pie Fellowship - Sunday, November 22nd

Please join the FPC family for our Pie Fellowship on Sunday, November 22nd in Fellowship Hall following the Called Congregational Meeting after the worship service. We ask that each family provide a pie (flavor of your choice) to share. We recommend donating your pie in a disposable pan. Vanilla ice cream, coffee, tea and hot chocolate will be provided. Please drop your pie off in Fellowship Hall before church so volunteers can have them ready for consumption. We look forward to sharing pie and ice cream with you!

All 3rd – 5th graders are invited to an awesome afternoon of fun, friends, and fellowship! Come hang out, play some great games, enjoy tasty snacks, and spend time together as we laugh and connect. We invite families with children birth – 5th grade (older siblings are welcome to attend) to join us on Friday, December 4, from 5:00 PM – 7:00 PM in Von Maur Hall for an evening of Christmas celebration and fellowship. The evening will include Gingerbread House making, games, a White Elephant Gift Exchange, and pizza.

For the gift exchange, each participant (even grown-ups) is asked to bring one wrapped, gently used, church-appropriate item from home (please don't buy something just for this event), valued between $5 and $10. Humorous gifts are especially welcome and add to the fun of the evening.

Please RSVP by Monday, November 30, by emailing cefy@fpcdavenport.org or speak to Marty or Abby.
