8:00 a.m. and 10:00 a.m. The Celebration of the Holy Eucharist with Homily

Celebrant and Homilist: The Reverend Dr. Anthony B. Holder, Rector

Our Mission:

The community of All Saints' accepts the empowerment of the Holy Spirit to spread the Gospel of Jesus Christ through worship of God, service to His People and stewardship of His Gifts.

Our Vision:

"Live like Jesus, love God and all people."

The people are invited to read the parts in bold.

The Entrance Rite

Prelude: Light of the World, Sing Hallelujah by Andrew Bergthold, Ed, Franni, Martin and Scott Cash (10 a.m. only)

The people stand.

Processional: O God, our help in ages past (#680, 1982 Hymnal) (10 a.m. only)

1
O God, our help in ages past,
our hope for years to come,
our shelter from the stormy blast,
and our eternal home:

2
under the shadow of thy throne thy saints have dwelt secure;
sufficient is thine arm alone,
and our defense is sure.

3
Before the hills in order stood,
or earth received her frame,
from everlasting thou art God,
to endless years the same.

4
A thousand ages in thy sight are like an evening gone;
short as the watch that ends the night before the rising sun.

Time, like an ever-rolling stream, bears all our years away;
they fly, forgotten, as a dream dies at the opening day.

O God, our help in ages past,
our hope for years to come,
be thou our guide while life shall last,
and our eternal home.

O God, our help in ages past, #680 from The Hymnal 1982 — Words: Isaac Watts (1674-1748), alt.; para. of Psalm 90.
Music: St. Anne, melody att. William Croft (1678-1727), alt.; harm. William Henry Monk (1823-1889).

The people sit for the Liturgy of the Word. The Readings and Psalm are for Proper 28 (Year A) of the Lectionary.

The First Lesson: Judges 4:1-7

Reader: A reading from the Book of Judges.

The Israelites again did what was evil in the sight of the Lord, after Ehud died. So the Lord sold them into the hand of King Jabin of Canaan, who reigned in Hazor; the commander of his army was Sisera, who lived in Harosheth-ha-goiim. Then the Israelites cried out to the Lord for help; for he had nine hundred chariots of iron, and had oppressed the Israelites cruelly twenty years.

At that time Deborah, a prophetess, wife of Lappidoth, was judging Israel. She used to sit under the palm of Deborah between Ramah and Bethel in the hill country of Ephraim; and the Israelites came up to her for judgment. She sent and summoned Barak son of Abinoam from Kedesh in Naphtali, and said to him, "The Lord, the God of Israel, commands you, 'Go, take position at Mount Tabor, bringing ten thousand from the tribe of Naphtali and the tribe of Zebulun. I will draw out Sisera, the general of Jabin's army, to meet you by the Wadi Kishon with his chariots and his troops; and I will give him into your hand.'"

Reader: The Word of the Lord.
People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm: 123

(Page 780 of the Book of Common Prayer or as printed in the bulletin. We will read the psalm alternatively by verse).

1 To you I lift up my eyes, to you enthroned in the heavens.
2 As the eyes of servants look to the hand of their masters, and the eyes of a maid to the hand of her mistress,
3 So our eyes look to the LORD our God, until he show us his mercy.
4 Have mercy upon us, O LORD, have mercy, for we have had more than enough of contempt,
5 Too much of the scorn of the indolent rich, and of the derision of the proud.

The Second Lesson: 1 Thessalonians 5:1-11

Reader: A reading from the First Letter of Paul to the Thessalonians.

Now concerning the times and the seasons, brothers and sisters, you do not need to have anything written to you. For you yourselves know very well that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night. When they say, "There is peace and security," then sudden destruction will come upon them, as labor pains come upon a pregnant woman, and there will be no escape! But you, beloved, are not in darkness, for that day to surprise you like a thief; for you are all children of light and children of the day; we are not of the night or of darkness. So then let us not fall asleep as others do, but let us keep awake and be sober; for those who sleep sleep at night, and those who are drunk get drunk at night. But since we belong to the day, let us be sober, and put on the breastplate of faith and love, and for a helmet the hope of salvation. For God has destined us not for wrath but for obtaining salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, who died for us, so that whether we are awake or asleep we may live with him. Therefore encourage one another and build up each other, as indeed you are doing.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.
People: Thanks be to God.

The people stand for the Sequence Hymn and the Gospel.

Sequence Hymn: Stand up, stand up, for Jesus (#561, 1982 Hymnal) (10 a.m. only)

1
Stand up, stand up, for Jesus,
ye soldiers of the cross;
lift high his royal banner,
it must not suffer loss:
from victory unto victory
his army shall be lead, till every foe is vanquished and Christ is Lord indeed.

Stand up, stand up, for Jesus;
the trumpet call obey;
forth to the mighty conflict in this his glorious day:
ye that are his now serve him against unnumbered foes;
let courage rise with danger,
and strength to strength oppose.

The Holy Gospel: Matthew 25: 14-30

Gospeler: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, "It is as if a man, going on a journey, summoned his slaves and entrusted his property to them; to one he gave five talents, to another two, to another one, to each according to his ability. Then he went away. The one who had received the five talents went off at once and traded with them, and made five more talents. In the same way, the one who had the two talents made two more talents. But the one who had received the one talent went off and dug a hole in the ground and hid his master's money. After a long time the master of those slaves came and settled accounts with them. Then the one who had received the five talents came forward, bringing five more talents, saying, 'Master, you handed over to me five talents; see, I have made five more talents.' His master said to him, 'Well done, good and trustworthy slave; you have been trustworthy in a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master.' And the one with the two talents also came forward, saying, 'Master, you handed over to me two talents; see, I have made two more talents.' His master said to him, 'Well done, good and trustworthy slave; you have been trustworthy in a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master.' Then the one who had received the one talent also came forward, saying, 'Master, I knew that you were a harsh man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you did not scatter seed; so I was afraid, and I went and hid your talent in the ground. Here you have what is yours.' But his master replied, 'You wicked and lazy slave! You knew, did you, that I reap where I did not sow, and gather where I did not scatter? Then you ought to have invested my money with the bankers, and on my return I would have received what was my own with interest. So take the talent from him, and give it to the one with the ten talents. For to all those who have, more will be given, and they will have an abundance; but from those who have nothing, even what they have will be taken away. As for this worthless slave, throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'"

Gospeler: The Gospel of the Lord.
People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Sequence Hymn (cont'd): Stand up, stand up, for Jesus (#561, 1982 Hymnal) (10 a.m. only)

Stand up, stand up, for Jesus;
stand in this strength alone;
the arm of flesh will fail you,
ye dare not trust your own:
put on the Gospel armor,
and watching unto prayer,
when duty calls, or danger,
be never wanting there.

Stand up, stand up, for Jesus:
the strife will not be long:
this day, the noise of battle;
the next, the victor's song.
To valiant hearts triumphant,
a crown of life shall be;
they with the King of glory shall reign eternally.

Stand up, stand up, for Jesus, #561 from The Hymnal 1982 — Words: George Duffield, Jr. ((1818-1888), alt.
Music: Morning Light, George James Webb (1803-1887).

The Homily The Rector

After the invocation to the Homily, the people shall sit.

The Nicene Creed

The people stand for the Nicene Creed.

The Deacon or Celebrant shall say,

Let us reaffirm our faith in the words of the Nicene Creed.

Celebrant and People

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Offertory Hymn: My country tis of thee (#717, 1982 Hymnal) (10 a.m. only)

1
My country, 'tis of thee,
sweet land of liberty,
of thee I sing;
land where my fathers died,
land of the pilgrim's pride,
from every mountainside
let freedom ring.

My native country, thee,
land of the noble free,
thy name I love;
I love thy rocks and rills,
thy woods and templed hills;
my heart with rapture thrills like that above.

Let music swell the breeze, and ring from all the trees
sweet freedom's song;
let mortal tongues awake,
let all that breathe partake,
let rocks their silence break,
the sound prolong.

4
Our fathers' God, to thee,
author of liberty,
to thee we sing;
long may our land be bright with freedom's holy light;
protect us by thy might,
great God, our King.

My country, 'tis of thee, #717 from The Hymnal 1982 — Words: Samuel Francis Smith (1808-1895). Music: America, from Thesaurus Musicus, 1745.

The people stand for the Doxology

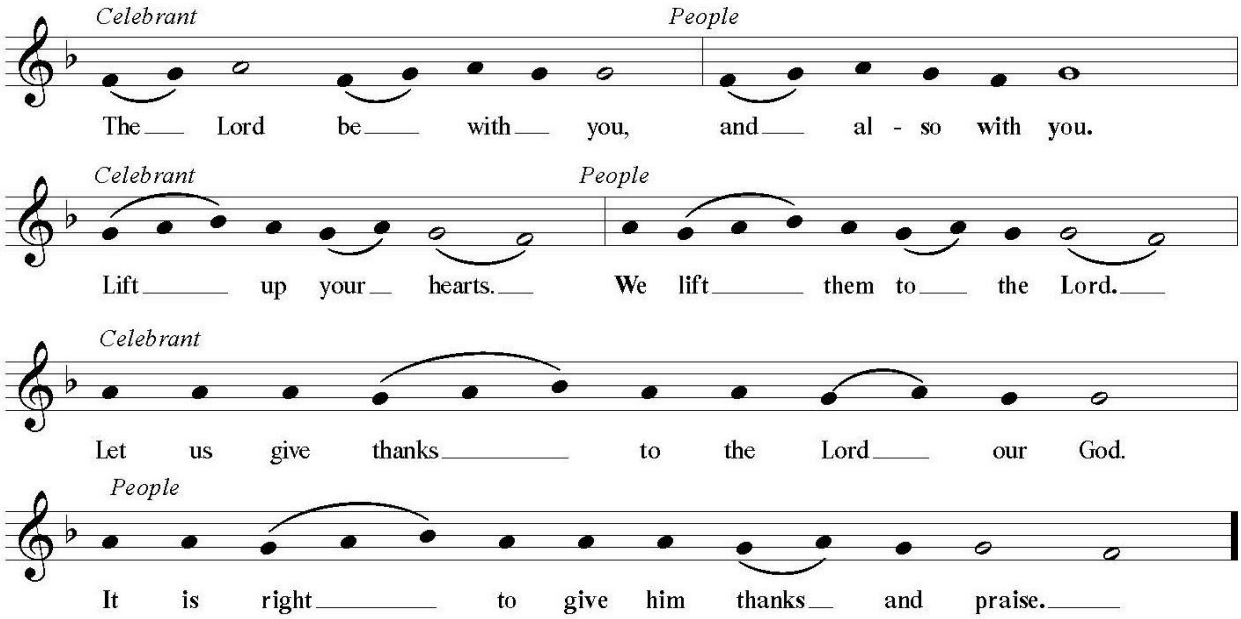

The Doxology

The Great Thanksgiving

The people remain standing. The Celebrant faces them and sings or says

Eucharistic Prayer B S112

Then, facing the Holy Table, the Celebrant proceeds

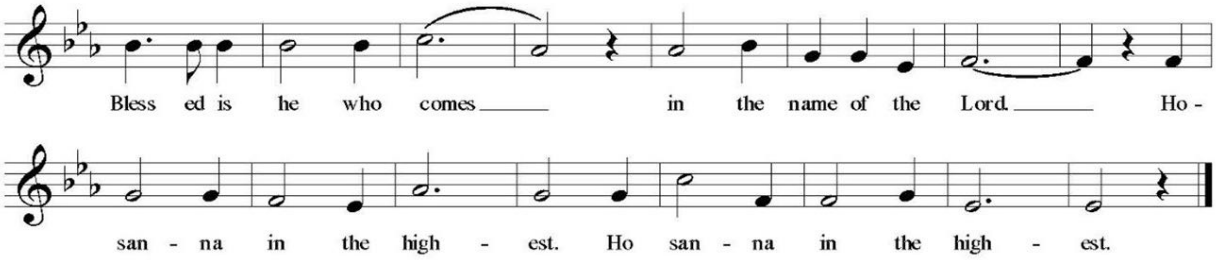

Celebrant: It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

Through Jesus Christ our Lord; who on the first day of the week overcame death and the grave, and by his glorious resurrection opened to us the way of everlastig life.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hym to proclaim the glory of your Name.

The Sanctus S130

The Consecration Prayer

The people may sit or stand, as desired, during the Eucharistic Prayer.

The Celebrant says

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world.

In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

Celebrant and People
We remember his death, we proclaim his resurrection, we await his coming in glory;

The Celebrant continues

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with [_____ and] all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

People: Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Celebrant: And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to pray,

Celebrant and People:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

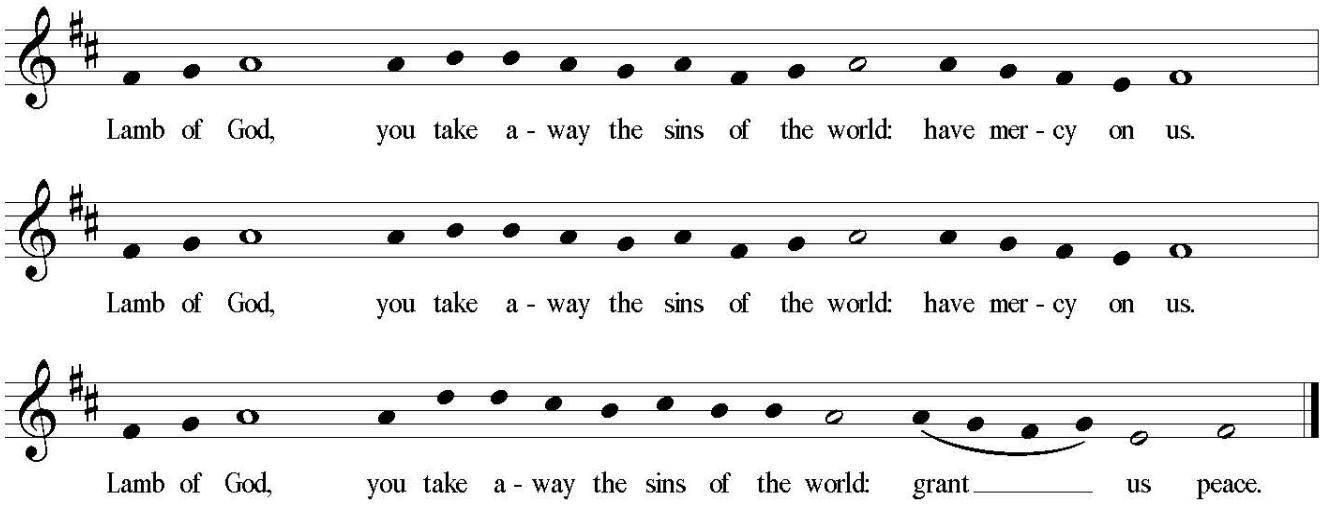

The Breaking of the Bread

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread. A period of silence is kept.

Celebrant: Alleluia! Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
People: Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia!

The Agnus Dei

S161

Take my life and let it be (#707, 1982 Hymnal) (10 a.m. only)

Take my life, and let it be consecrated, Lord, to thee;
take my moments and my days,
let them flow in ceaseless praise.
Take my hands, and let them move
at the impulse of thy love;
take my heart, it is thine own;
it shall be thy royal throne.

Take my voice, and let me sing always, only, for my King;
take my intellect, and use every power as thou shalt choose.
Take my will, and make it thine;
it shall be no longer mine.
Take myself, and I will be ever, only, all for thee.

Take my life, and let it be, #707 from The Hymnal 1982 — Words: Frances Ridley Havergal (1836-1879), alt.

I, the Lord of sea and sky (10 a.m. only)

1
I, the Lord of sea and sky,
I have heard my people cry.
All who dwell in dark and sin,
My hand will save.
I, who made the stars of night,
I will make their darkness bright.
Who will bear my light to them?
Whom shall I send?

Refrain

Here I am, Lord. Is it I, Lord?
I have heard you calling in the night.
I will go, Lord, if you lead me.
I will hold your people in my heart.

I, the Lord of snow and rain,
I have borne my people's pain.
I have wept for love of them.
They turn away.
I will break their hearts of stone,
Give them hearts for love alone.
I will speak my words to them.
Whom shall I send?
Refrain

I, the Lord of wind and flame,
I will send the poor and lame.
I will set a feast for them.
My hand will save.
Finest bread I will provide,
'Til their hearts be satisfied.
I will give my life to them.
Whom shall I send?

The National Anthem: (#720, v. 1, *1982 Hymnal) (10 a.m. only)

O say, can you see by the dawn's early light what so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars through the perilous fight o'er the ramparts we watched were so gallantly, yeah, streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air, gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
O say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave o'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

Recessional: God of our Father, whose almighty hand (#718, 1982 Hymnal) (10 a.m. only)

God of our fathers, whose almighty hand leads forth in beauty all the starry band of shining worlds in splendor through the skies, our grateful songs before thy throne arise.

2
Thy love divine hath led us in the past,
in this free land by thee our lot is cast;
be thou our ruler, guardian, guide, and stay thy word our law, thy paths our chosen way.

3
From war's alarms, from deadly pestilence, be thy strong arm our ever sure defense;
thy true religion in our hearts increase,
thy bounteous goodness nourish us in peace.

Refresh thy people on their toilsome way, lead us from night to never-ending day;
fill all our lives with love and grace divine,
and glory, laud, and praise be ever thine.

God of our fathers, whose almighty hand, #718 from The Hymnal 1982 — Words: Daniel Crane Roberts (1841-1907). Music: National Hymn, George William Warren (1828-1902).

CHRISTMAS PROGRESSIVE DINNER

You are invited to join us for An Evening of

at our

Candy Cane
CHRISTMAS
PROGRESSIVE DINNER

Friday, December 11, beginning at 5 p.m.
(Dress: Elegantly casual)

Sign-up sheets to attend and to host the entrées at homes for six to eight persons, (including hosts) are available in the breezeway.

The Parable of the Talents

The third servant was afraid. Fear made him grip that gift so tightly that he buried it. The other two servants saw things differently. They knew the money had never really been theirs. It was entrusted to them. So they held it loosely, trusted their master enough to risk it, and put it to work.

In the end, they are told, "Enter into the joy of your master." That's what our stewardship theme this year is about. Everything we have is on loan from a generous God. When we stop clutching it out of fear and trust God enough to put it to work, we find what those faithful servants found: generosity is a door into joy.

As you pray over your pledge this week,
I hope you'll ask yourself honestly what you've been burying, and what joy might be waiting if you let it go.

Altar Flower Donations

Donations toward flowers for Sunday morning services except during Lent, are always appreciated. This is a wonderful way of expressing your love in remembrance of a loved one, or in thanksgiving to God for any occasion in our lives. You may call the Church Office at (772) 334-0610, to find out how to contribute.

The price is $60.00.

Vestry Elections

As we draw near to the end of another calendar year, we are inviting persons to prayerfully consider serving God and his people, through the Vestry. If you would like to know what it entails, please ask a Vestry member. If you are considering this ministry, or are interested, please contact our Nominating Committee — Senior Warden, Paul Neff [pen55@me.com], Clerk, Diane Denes [dianedenes1@gmail.com], and Dorothy Bree [dorothybree@mac.com]. Interested persons should submit their pictures and biographies to the Nominating Committee by Sunday, December 6, 2026.

Tithe.ly is here!

In October, we began moving our website and church management software from Sharefaith to an integrated Tithely platform. A similar website design and our Breeze experience helped us get started quickly. The transition to Breeze ChMS is complete.

Breeze manages our directory, events calendar, volunteers, and giving. If you gave online through Sharefaith, follow Father Tony's emailed instructions to switch to the new giving platform in Breeze, or use the QR code on page 8 of this bulletin. Those who already give through Breeze do not need to change.

If you need assistance creating an ID, sending emails or scheduling events, contact Pam Hurd at pamhurd@allsaintsjensenbeach.org or text her at 772.486.2129.

Our website, app, and livestreaming platform are transitioning this month. The missing bulletin button will return with the new website.

Livestreaming is moving from churchstreaming.tv to Vimeo and will remain accessible through our website, YouTube, and Facebook. The new Tithe.ly app will be available later this month.
