HeartWise in Leadership (Proverbs 15:33, 16:1-3, 6, 9, 29:18)

Wise Leaders Are Servants following God's Vision

Warmup: What is your strategy for planning a trip?

READ Proverbs 15:33, 16:1-3, 6, 9

- What words or phrases are repeated in these verses? What themes are repeated?
- What wise counsel is given in these proverbs to aid you in planning your week and ultimately your future? Be specific, what habits demonstrate opposite behaviors of committing your plans to the LORD?
- What is God saying to you in these verses?

REFLECT

- From these verses choose two that resonate with you. How do these verses convey “admiration of the LORD?” As you consider cultural habits, why is “admiring God” crucial for wise leadership? How do admiration and reverence of God structure future decision making?
- In Proverbs 29:18 what wisdom concerning “vision,” does the writer want you to remember?
- How is the Spirit speaking to you right now?

RESPOND

- As you review the designated verses, name a few steps to help you discern God's vision for you? What other spiritual habits will help you discern and draft a vision statement?
- With whom will you share your vision statement? What work will you do to add a supply line or accountability person to encourage you in the “next steps” of your vision statement?
- How is the Spirit leading you to respond this week?
