"Work matters because it was God's intention for us. It was what God had in mind when he made us. It is our part in his creation...Work, then, is not the result of "the curse". Of course, all work is now affected in myriad detrimental ways by our fallenness. But work itself is of the essence of human nature. We were created to be workers, like God, the worker."
