John 12:13 They took palm branches and went out to meet him, shouting, "Hosanna!" "Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!"...

Genesis 16:1-7 Now Sarai, Abram's wife, had borne him no children.

But she had an Egyptian slave named Hagar; so she said to Abram, "The Lord has kept me from having children. Go, sleep with my slave; perhaps I can build a family through her." Abram agreed to what Sarai said. So after Abram had been living in Canaan ten years, Sarai his wife took her Egyptian slave Hagar and gave her to her husband to be his wife. He slept with Hagar, and she conceived." Then Sarai said to Abram, "You are responsible for the wrong I am suffering. I put my slave in your arms, and now that she knows she is pregnant, she despises me. May the Lord judge between you and me." Your slave is in your hands," Abram said. "Do with her whatever you think best." Then Sarai mistreated Hagar; so she fled from her.

Genesis 16: 7 The angel of the Lord found Hagar..... beside a spring of water in the wilderness, along the road to Shur.

Our Rescuer Sits in Our Story

Genesis 16:8 And he said, "Hagar, slave of Sarai, where have you come from, and where are you going?" "I'm running away from my mistress Sarai," she answered.

"People start to heal the moment they feel heard."

Our Rescuer Rewrites Our Story

Genesis 16:9 Then the angel of the Lord told her, “Go back to your mistress and submit to her.”

Genesis 16:10 The angel added, “I will increase your descendants so much that they will be too numerous to count.”<sup>11</sup> The angel of the Lord also said to her: “You are now pregnant and you will give birth to a son. You shall name him Ishmael...
