The Peace of Wild Things

When despair for the world grows in me and I wake in the night at the least sound in fear of what my life and my children's lives
may be,
I go and lie down where the wood drake rests in his beauty on the water, and the great heron feeds.
I come into the peace of wild things
who do not tax their lives with forethought of grief. I come into the presence of still water.
And I feel above me the day-blind stars waiting with their light. For a time
I rest in the grace of the world, and am free.

you raised Christ from the dead

The Proclamation of the Word

Reader: Let us prepare ourselves for the Word of God as it comes to us in the reading of Holy Scripture.

All: Our hearts and minds are open.

Reader A reading from the first letter of John (3:1-7)

See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God’s children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure.

Everyone who commits sin is guilty of lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. You know that he was revealed to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. No one who abides in him sins; no one who sins has either seen him or known him. Little children, let no one deceive you. Everyone who does what is right is righteous, just as he is righteous.

Psalm 4

Chant 4

Answer me when I call, O God, defender / of my cause;*
you set me free when I am hard-pressed;
have mercy on me and / hear my prayer.

“You mortals, how long will you dishon-/our my glory;*
how long will you worship dumb idols and run af-/ter
false gods?”

Know that the Lord does wonders / for the faithful;*
when I call upon the Lord, / he will hear me.

Tremble, then, and / do not sin;*
speak to your heart in silence up-/on your bed.

Offer the appointed / sacrifices,*
and put your trust / in the Lord.

Many are saying, “Oh, that we might see / better times!”
Lift up the light of your countenance upon / us, O Lord.

You have put gladness / in my heart,*
more than when grain and wine and / oil increase.

I lie down in peace; at once I / fall asleep;*
for only you, Lord, make me / dwell in safety.

The Gospel

All stand, as able, for the Gospel.

Deacon The Lord be with you

People And also with you.

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke (24:36-48)

People Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

While they were talking about this, Jesus himself stood among them and said to them, ‘Peace be with you.’ They were startled and terrified, and thought that they were seeing a ghost. He said to them, ‘Why are you frightened, and why do doubts arise in your hearts? Look at my hands and my feet; see that it is I myself. Touch me and see; for a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you see that I have.’ And when he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. While in their joy they were disbelieving and still wondering, he said to them, ‘Have you anything here to eat?’ They gave him a piece of broiled fish, and he took it and ate in their presence.

Then he said to them, ‘These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you—that everything written about me in the law of Moses, the prophets, and the psalms must be fulfilled.’ Then he opened their minds to understand the scriptures, and he said to them, ‘Thus it is written, that the Messiah is to suffer and to rise from the dead on the third day, and that repentance and forgiveness of sins is to be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things.

At the conclusion of the Gospel, the reader says,
The Gospel of Christ.

People Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
