

Archbishop C. Nathan Edwers, DMin. Bio

Archbishop C. Nathan Edwers, DMin. is the Senior Pastor of Friendship Worship Center located in Mount Vernon, NY; Presiding Bishop of the Middle Atlantic Conference of the Unified Free Will Baptist Churches, Inc.; and Pastor of the historic Mount Zion Unified Free Will Baptist Church in Edison, NJ. Born in Newark, NJ, he grew up in the church where his father was Pastor. His career began in 1983 when he accepted the position as Pastor of Calvary UFWB Church in Brooklyn, NY. In January 1989, he assumed the position as Pastor of Little Friendship UFWB Church in Mount Vernon, NY. He was consecrated and elevated to the office of Bishop by his father. He continued his educational pursuits earning his Bachelors' Nyack College, New York, NY; his Masters' Alliance Theological Seminary, Nyack, NY; and Doctorate United Theological Seminary, Dayton, OH.

Bishop C. Nathan Edwers has served on many civic, religious commissions, and boards. Elected President of the United Black Clergy of Westchester in 2011; He is a member of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity Inc.; a Master Mason of St. Joseph Lodge #117 Free and Accepted Masonry; Buffalo Soldiers MC; and the Founder, CEO, and Director of Friendship for Tots Inc.

Bishop C. Nathan Edwers resides in Mount Vernon, NY with his wife of 36 years, Aro Denise Edwers; father of Sherri and Eric Edwers; Father-in-Law of Audrey Edwers; and Grandfather of Harper Loraine and Theodore Arthur Edwers.