

Bishop Raymond Captville is a native of Abbeville, Louisiana; however, he currently lives in Baton Rouge with his wife, Jenniver, and they are proud parents, grandparents, and great grandparents.

In 2003, Bishop Captville was selected by God and affirmed by the people of God as General Bishop of the Western Division of Free Will Baptist, Inc., at which time he became a National Convention of Free Will Baptists, USA Board Member

During 2016, Bishop Captville was elected to serve in the office he currently holds as National President. He also serves as Pastor of Mt. Moriah's Family BC since 2013.

While he is gifted with abilities and talents that allow him to serve God and the people of God, he obtained a Masters of Christian Leadership from Randall University formerly Hillsdale Free Will Baptist College in Moore, Oklahoma. To further fulfill his quest for higher learning, he earned a Doctor of Divinity and a Doctor of Christian Education degree from Freedom Bible College and Seminary in Rogers, Arkansas. A former entrepreneur and community activist, he is civically engaged in matters of justice, economics, and educational possibilities that prepare God's people to be more than conquerors.

Bishop Captville is dedicated to his calling; resolute in his faith; calm in demeanor; and committed to service.
