

Newington Baptist Church
Quarterly Business Meeting
Sunday, January 23, 2022

Bob Hinson, Moderator, called the meeting to order followed by Rich Cherkauer with prayer.

The minutes from last meeting were approved as written in the agenda.

Reports:

*The financial report was printed in the agenda and explained by Wanda German, Treasurer, then approved as reported. Wanda, also, stated that God has blessed Newington.

*Bob Hinson, Board of Directors Chair, reports that the BOD members have been assigned their jobs. He, also, stated that the Church Management Team is asking for volunteers to help with the running of the church. He said, "The church is functioning very well, thank the Lord."

*Jerry German, Pastor Search Committee Chair, stated that 40 resumes have received and God is blessing in many ways. He asked that the church remain in prayer because this week was going to be busy. Eddy Heath has been working closely with the committee.

*Rich Cherkauer, Deacon Chair, reported that a key company will be re-keying all the doors of the church. Key control is a major concern so re-keying and recording who has a key will help eliminate this problem.

New Business:

*Brandi Cherkauer, with tears, reported that the BGAV is helping find a new Preschool Director. The Preschool Committee will accept and review applications.

*Brenda Armistead, Youth Director, reported that Youth Camp will be at Bluefield Collage on the week of July 18, 2022. The cost is $304 and deposit is due soon. The Suicide Prevention Conference which was scheduled for yesterday was cancelled due to snow, will be held in March. Paint Night will be on Friday, February 25th and the cost is $35. A group of youths were taken ice skating and had a great time. The Cherkaurers were like pros!! Also, she needs volunteers to help with Youth Sunday School.

*Bob Hinson stated that the church calendar has been set for 2022 and building use is going well.

*Doug Hull, Building Committee, announced that Jani King, a cleaning company, has started working on the church but it will take time to get the church up to their standards.

With no further business the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted, Jeraldine Young, Clerk
