Hands of Compassion: As was announced last Sunday, a special collection will be taken up August 4th on behalf of Hands of Compassion. They provide free housing for families with patients at the Mayo Clinic. Any checks should be made payable to Wheeler Road Church of Christ with the notation of Hands of Compassion on the memo line.

Shults Lewis Commodity Drive: Our Shults Lewis Commodity Drive is here. We are collecting assorted bags/boxes of individually packaged chips and also collecting different types of juice such as cranberry, grape, pineapple etc. but they don't want apple juice. They also are taking old/used suitcases, duffel bags, used ink cartridges and old cell phones. The collection goes from now until August 25th and we put our items at the front of the auditorium. We will put out our change piggy bank on the Welcome center if kids/adults want to fill him up as well. Gift cards they can use to buy food are also welcome for them. See Vicki Phillips or Ruby Dresden if you have cell phones or gift cards to give and ink cartridges can be left in the office.

- Mo Brewer has a spot on his lung and will be getting further testing on it.
- Bill Thena has dealt with some pain after having his kidney stones removed.
- Ricky Slaughter had a fall and hit his head but is doing ok . He's been recovering at home. He has other medical things going on as well.
- Jeannine Walser is home from the hospital but tired and dealing with weakness still. She has been starting Physical and Occupational therapies.
- Brian Winton's latest Ultrasound gave useful information on his kidney stones. He expects a new urologist appointment soon and hopes his vomiting and kidney issues will improve. Prayers for relief and resolution.
