PLEASE PRAY FOR OUR WRCC FAMILY AND FRIENDS

- Sue Wells tests came back with her having endometrial cancer of the uterus. She will have surgery and additional biopsies of the region including the ovary in late July. Please keep her and Darren in your prayers.
- Margarita, (Mari Sitter's birth mother) Her baby is due in the next couple weeks and prayers for a safe delivery for mom and for a healthy baby.
- Bonnie Sitter has been feeling under the weather lately with prayers needed.
- Maddy Kurshat now has an appointment with U of M hepatology this Tuesday. Prayers for strength, direction and healing.

Praise

- Ann Joseph shares a praise about hearts softening where there were broken relationships and the reconciliation process having begun in the family.
- Teresa Gill, Kayla (Wanous) Gill's mother-in-law did well with her surgery.

Memorial Info:

- A Memorial for Lee Walker (former member) will be on Saturday, July 12th at 11:30am at Midland Church of Christ (1700 E. Patrick Rd). Lunch will follow. Keep his wife Judy and family in your prayers.

Question of the Month

Is it possible to follow Jesus without leaving something behind?

Budget Report

Contributions YTD as of May - $63,664 YTD Budget - $70,830

Elder Spotlight - Adam Joseph

"Is it possible to follow Jesus without leaving something behind?" This is at once an easy question to answer, and yet a hard question to answer. It is easy because the obvious answer is "no". It is hard because we must be humble and admit that there is something in our life that we need to leave behind. We often succumb to the sin of Adam and Eve and choose what is right in our own eyes, instead of living by God's wisdom. In this case the something that we need to leave behind is our own selfishness and sense of self-importance. In Matthew 16:24, Jesus says it this way "If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me". What are you choosing in your life, that is counter to God's wisdom, that you need to deny in yourself and follow Jesus?
