

WallBuilders: Life of David

Volume 1 Week 3

Background Reading: I Samuel 18

- 1. What does it mean that David behaved wisely in all his ways? How would that have been exemplified?
- 2. What challenges did David face, that would have hindered his godly character and wisdom? Do you think David knew Saul's true intentions? Have you ever faced such situations?
- 3. What would have been the normal response if someone tried to kill you? What does this say about David's relationship with Saul and his family?

- 4. Where do we see David's humility in action and words? What are some pitfalls to living a truly humble life? How could pride have been manifested in David's life?

- 5. Could David have taken it as a slight when Saul gave his older daughter to another man? Why do you think he didn't? How can we learn from this, when someone either a friend, family, or boss takes advantage of us or our Christianity?

- 6. Why do you think David killed 200 Philistines instead of only 100? Do you think he did this alone? What lesson can we learn from David in this act?
