Engage the WORD

Sept 14 | Genesis 21:1-3; 22:1-14

Read Genesis 21:1-3; 22:1-14, and then spend time reflecting on the following questions:

Reflect: Abraham and Sarah waited a long time for God’s promise to come true. In a world that values speed and certainty, their story reminds us that God’s timing is often different from ours. God’s promises often come in unexpected ways that challenge our understanding, our timing, or our comfort, but God’s faithfulness endures.

When have you experienced God providing in unexpected or surprising ways?

Are you waiting on answers to prayers that feel “impossible” or delayed in your own life right now?

How does Abraham’s willingness to trust God, even in difficulty, inspire your own faith? What might it mean to embrace God’s promises even when they challenge your understanding or expectations?
