Nov 16 | Isaiah 9:1-7

Read Isaiah 9:1-7,

Reflect: Sometimes life can feel isolating or uncertain, like we're stumbling through the dark. Where are you longing to see God's light shine in your life right now?

A child is given to us, one who carries names of strength and tenderness: Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. Which of these names speaks most deeply to your life right now? If you were to pick just one of these names to hold onto this week, which would it be?

God promises to break the things that weigh us down. What burden are you carrying that you long to release? Where do you need peace most—in your heart, your home, or your relationships?

God's passion and faithfulness make these promises sure. How have you seen God come through for you in the past? What promise from this passage do you most need to hold onto in this season?
