In Memory of

GIVEN IN MEMORY OF JIM COLE

- By William Cole (Backpacks)

The KUMC Trustees, with the approval of the church council, has decided to sell the property owned by the church at 706 Chestnut Street in Kenova. The property measures 96 feet wide and 100 feet deep. There is a small free-standing wood framed garage on the property. By church policy, the sale of the property will be offered to the congregation for 2 weeks beginning October 6th and will end bidding on October 20th. The minimum bid will be $22,000.00. Bids should be submitted to the church office in a sealed envelope with the bidder's name and amount of their bid. Bids will be reviewed by the Trustees (according to policy) and the highest bidder will be notified. If no one bids on the property, it will be advertised to the public.

If there are any questions, please contact Lugene Jarrell. (304-634-1478) or any Trustee. A major portion of the sale will be set aside for parsonage repairs and upkeep.

OCTOBER IS PASTOR APPRECIATION MONTH

Although we set aside the month of October to remember Rev. Andrew, Julie, Luna and Esther, we want them to know they are special to us every day.

This month let's let them know how much we appreciate them and send a card, make a call, extend an invitation, do a kind deed, give a gift or share a kind sentiment and always remember our Pastor and his family in your prayers.
