- Sue Wells had her first two radiation treatments last week and says she is mainly tired but feels prayers are working. She has several to go in the next weeks.
- Continue to keep Abraham and Abby Parks in your prayers (friends of Adam and Heather) as they work toward selling their Ohio home and look here to find a new home in the Tri-Cities.
- Continue to keep Maddy Kurschat in your prayers with the changes they are working on with her medications so that her current elevated liver enzyme levels can go back down again to normal and so they can help her feel better.
- Continue to keep David Sitter in your prayers during his parole process.

Praise

- Lisa Chai's eye floaters from her recent eye surgery have mostly decreased.
- Kathy Phillips (Donna Anspaugh's sister) has now moved to assisted living housing in her hometown.

Question of the Month

Will we bury our talents in fear or step out in faith?

Budget Report

Contributions YTD as of August - $100,288 YTD Budget - $113,328

Elder Spotlight—Lee Dresden

Will we bury our talents in fear or step out in faith?

God gives us different talents not necessarily equal, each according to his/her ability. We are stewards (not owners) of those gifts and responsible for how we use the given gifts.

God doesn't want us to bury those gifts of talents out of fear; he wants and expects us to use them as best we can, "each according to his ability."

"For it is by grace you have been saved, through faith—and this not from yourselves, it is the gift of God—not by works, so that no one can boast. For we are God's workmanship, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do."
